

Understanding baby deaths in the UK in 2015

Out of 782,720 births* in 2015...

3,032 stillbirths

1,360 neonatal deaths

* of babies delivered from 24 weeks of pregnancy, excluding terminations of pregnancy

Fall in death rates

Over 700 babies died due to a congenital anomaly

Rates varied widely across the UK

Data by Neonatal Network (England and Scotland) and Country (Wales and Northern Ireland)

11% of stillbirths did not have placental pathology

In addition, over 850 babies died at 22 and 23 weeks of pregnancy

