NEWSLETTER 50 - July 2017

Notice for those affected by the recent Cyber Attack

Since the recent cyber attacks that affected multiple NHS trusts we have been informed that some reporters are unable to access the report links. It would be appreciated if you could contact your IT teams and ask for UKOSS links to be made accessible. We recognise that the NHS IT teams are likely to be overstretched at present and so we appreciate this may continue to be an issue for some time. In the meantime, if you cannot access the report request links, please report to UKOSS by emailing your report to the UKOSS team (ukoss@npeu.ox.ac.uk). When reporting via email please clearly state your name, hospital and the month for which you are reporting. As always notifications of "nothing to report" are just as important as case reporting. For a list of current studies please see the UKOSS website.

Epilepsy Study Incidence Check

Following the conclusion of the Severe Epilepsy in Pregnancy study, we are checking case numbers to make sure all women are identified. Because of this you may receive an email from a specialist epilepsy nurse confirming reported case numbers. If you are notified of a case that is yet to be reported please contact the UKOSS team as soon as possible. ukoss@npeu.ox.ac.uk

Following initial analysis of the Cystic Fibrosis data set the study leads have asked that all cases with unconfirmed genetic screening be reviewed. If you have reported such a case you will have recently received a letter containing instructions on how to confirm this data. If you have not already done so, please complete and return the associated form as soon as possible. If you have any issues please contact the UKOSS team at ukoss@npeu.ox.ac.uk

New Members of the UKOSS Admin Team

Since the beginning of 2017 we have had two new members join the UKOSS admin team. Anna Balchan joined us at the beginning of the year as UKOSS administrative assistant and has been a great help around the office. We have now also been joined by Jennie Duffin who has taken on the role of Deputy Programme Manager and has been getting to grips with all the studies going on. Look out for both them when contacting the UKOSS Admin Team!

GMC Revalidation and NMC Continuing Professional Development
